

The Blank Pack

Editable versions. Headings left open.

Use these when a sheet is nearly right but not quite — which is the situation that otherwise quietly ends a system. Not in the first fortnight, though: customising before using is the most reliable way to spend an evening on stationery and never start.

Blank — lined sheet

Title it yourself. The general-purpose one.

Title

Blank — four-column table

For any tracker the printed ones do not cover.

Title

Blank — six-column week

When the week does not run Monday to Friday.

Week beginning

Blank — checklist

Two columns: done, and the thing.

Title

[illegible]

Blank — grid

For practice of anything.
